Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments filed December 12th, 2003 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. ***.

Election/Restrictions

2. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-27, 33, 44 and 45, drawn to temperature regulation of vials, classified in class 165, subclass 287.
 - II. Claims 28 and 29, drawn to measurement of Ac resistance of a thermoelectric device (thermistor), classified in class 338, subclass 22.
 - III. Claim 30, drawn to achieving linear temperature transition using a thermoelectric device, classified in class 374, subclass 183.
 - IV. Claim 31, drawn to determining temperature of a mixture in a sample vial, classified in class 165, subclass 298.
 - V. Claim 32, drawn to calibration pf cycling samples, classified in class 374, subclass 2.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

3. Inventions I, II, III, VI and V are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because they are patentably distinct. The subcombination has separate utility such as temperature regulation of vials, measurement of AC resistance of a thermoelectric device (thermistor), achieving linear temperature transition using a thermoelectric device, determining temperature of a mixture in a sample vial and calibration of cycling samples.

4. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group I, II, III, VI is not required for Group V, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

6. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
